Dear Messrs Fadnes and Kydland,

I am an Italian journalist, I collaborate with the “Associated Press” agency and other national and foreign media. On my website (<https://www.gianangelopistoia.eu/>) I maintain a section dedicated to museums and art exhibitions: (<https://www.gianangelopistoia.eu/personaggi/worlds-museums-and-exhibitions>).

I am currently working on articles on the new “National Museum of Norway” for the Italian public. For this I ask for an online interview - using “Google Meet” or similar applications - with the director Karin Hindsbo.

Could you forward this request to Mrs. Hindsbo? If my request is accepted, please give me information on the methods in which you prefer to operate (calendar, times and methods of the interview).

I look forward to your response, hopefully positive.

Thanks for collaboration.

Sincerely.

GianAngelo Pistoia

Dear Gian Angelo, thanks for reaching out!

Dir. Hindsbo won't be available before mid-August. If that is OK we can check possibile dates?

If you are in a hurry, you could for instance talk to our Director of Collection or we'll find other ways to answer your questions.

Best regards.

Eirik
