Dear Head of the Press Office,

I am an Italian journalist, I collaborate with the “Associated Press” agency and other national and foreign media. On my website (<https://www.gianangelopistoia.eu/>) I maintain a section dedicated to museums and art exhibitions:

(<https://www.gianangelopistoia.eu/personaggi/worlds-museums-and-exhibitions>).

I am currently working on articles on the “Academy Museum of Motion Pictures” for the Italian public. For this I ask for an online interview – using “Google Meet” or similar applications – with the Director and President Jacqueline Stewart.

Could you forward this request to Mrs. Jacqueline Stewart? If my request is accepted, please give me information on the methods in which you prefer to operate (calendar, times and methods of the interview).

I look forward to your response, hopefully positive.

Thanks for collaboration.

Sincerely,

Gian Angelo Pistoia

I am responding to your note below on behalf of the Academy Museum of Motion Pictures.

We are unable to accommodate an interview with Jacqueline Stewart.

In case it is helpful, please find here a link to the Museum’s digital press kit.

Please don’t hesitate to let me know if you need anything else to complete your story.
